Brand New Book  Print on Demand .1902 (When Germany proposed that England should help her in a naval demonstration to collect debts from Venezuela.) The banked oars fell an hundred strong, And backed and threshed and ground, But bitter was the rowers song As they brought the war-boat round. They had no heart for the rally and roar That makes the whale-bath smoke- When the great blades cleave and hold and leave As one on the racing stroke. They sang: - What reckoning do you keep, And steer her by what star, If we come unscathed from the Southern deep To be wrecked on a Baltic bar? Last night you swore our voyage was done, But seaward still we go, And you tell us now of a secret vow You have made with an open foe! That we must lie off a lightless coast And haul and back and veer, At the will of the breed that have wronged us most For a year and a year and a year! There was never a shame in Christendie They laid not to our door- And you say we must take the winter sea And sail with them once more? Look South! The gale is scarce o erpast That stripped and laid us down, When we stood forth but they stood fast And prayed to see us drown Our dead they mocked are scarcely cold, Our wounds are bleeding yet- And you tell us now that our strength is sold To help them press for a debt Neath all the flags of all mankind That use upon the seas, Was there no other fleet to find That you strike hands with these? Of evil times that...
