Yes, greed, hate, control and revenge are all forces in this speculative novel. But also present are needs for love, purpose, atonement and redemption, adding human dimensions to the characters and complexity to their decisions and actions. Its 2076, the eve of the Tricentennial. Historian and teacher Ian Vanderkills complacent life will forever be changed by an item he decides must never fall into the hands of the corpos. Later in the evening he meets Siobhan Carlson and is captivated by her subtle grace and distinctive beauty. The next day they travel down the Hudson River to the magic seclusion of Dodendal, where Siobhan convinces Ian to help with her mission a mission that borders on conspiracy against The Corporation. But he knows there is more she isnt telling him. He wants to trust her, but can he Michael Chan is determined to redeem himself in his first big case since finally making the grade of chief inspector. Hes a natural and is ambitious. But hes also disturbingly independent. And...
