Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Our Country and Its Cause: A Discourse, Preached October 2d, 1864, in the South Presbyterian Church, of Brooklyn Nor again, will any enlightened and candid man deny, that the Government of these United States is the supreme civil authority in this land, acting directly upon all the people in all the States and throughout all the Territories. It is a Government and not a treaty or league between independent nations. The Constitution, and all laws passed in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made under the same, are expressly declared to be the supreme law of the land. Hence any effort of a State, or any portion of the people to vacate or destroy this authority, whether in the form of nullification, secession, or military resistance, is treasonable in its character, imposing upon the Supreme Government the duty of arresting the effort, and bringing its authors to justice. This it must do, or cease to be a Government. If it has not the power to do this, then it is not a Government. If having the power, the officers of law decline to wield it, then they are traitors themselves, unworthy of their trust, and enemies of the public good. A Statement of Facts Bearing these principles in mind, we come to a grave question of fact: How happens it that this once peaceful and happy nation is now involved in all the perils and sorrows of a dreadful civil war? Who began this contest? Let a word or two of history be my answer to this question. In the autumn of 1860, the people, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, entered upon a...
