Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from To the Polish National Committee in the United States In furtherance of the same object, W. R. Johnson, Esq, one of the committee, proceeded to the German counties with two of the Poles who spoke German fluently. He visited Lancaster, Gettysburg, Chambersburg, York, c. c., in order not merely to procure situations for those who accompanied him, but, if possible, to make provision and permanent arrangements for providing employment for more of their countrymen. This excursion, though of salutary tendency, did not produce all the good consequences that were anticipated. In Lancaster, collections were made to the amount of $150, and aid was also given to Poles passing through the above towns. But employment, the grand object sought, was procured for very few. Hence considerable numbers of the Poles, whose travelling expenses were paid by the committee to go to towns in the interior of the state, to Baltimore, c., in quest of employment, returned completely disappointed and disheartened. Their expenses of travelling, and those of Mr. Johnson and his companions, made a considerable inroad...
