GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 20 pages. Dimensions: 10.0in. x 7.0in. x 0.1in. Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject Psychology - Social Psychology, grade: 1, 0, Uppsala University, language: English, abstract: Symbolic Interactionists are also referred to as cultural romantics. 2 They sympathize with outsiders and underdogs, believe in the contingency of self and society and envision social reality as an ongoing interaction of people, which entails change and transformation. 3 On the other hand, Symbolic Interactionism reflects not only a subjective study of human experience, but it also attempts to evolve an objective (social) science which holds man as a product of society and ones self as only existing in the definite relationships to other selves. 4 This dichotomy appears to be fairly interesting when it comes to social phenomena that are assumingly either mainly subjective or objective. Love tends to be seen as a merely subjective experience of the self. Falling in love with somebody seems to be possible under the most incredible circumstances, not complying to any rules, being mysterious and unpredictable. The beloved other prompts feelings and might get positioned on a throne for the most inexplicable (personal) reasons. But who is the beloved-other really Why is he or she privileged to ascend the throne Are the reasons for loving this particular person barely subjective or might they be rooted in society and hence influenced and induced by an objective reality Do we really choose our beloved-other or is heshe chosen by society This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
