Have you communicated with Persons who have been acquainted with the Cultivation of Cotton in the East Indies? I once wrote a Memorandum, and gave it to Mr. Robert Owen; that was in August 1815. I began to think of the Expediency of it in 1808 and 1809, when the American Embargo and Non-intercourse took place. I have often thought that if another Embargo was now to take place (as they send us such an immense Supply) of Three or Four Years, that it would throw the Country generally into great Confusion. There ought to be an ample and a safe and a sure Supply from our own Possessions; it has become an Article of such immense Magnitude and Importance to our National and Individual Prosperity. Does the dirty State...
