Book Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Little, Brown Book Group | Als die Schwindler Shaw und Romeo an einem Lebensmittelladen in Georgia halten, wollen sie nur ihren Reifen flicken und dann weiter nach Florida. Aber als ihnen die hübsche Angestellte von der Familie erzählt, die bei ihr das Gewinnerlos für den $318-Jackpot gekauft haben, schmieden die beiden andere Pläne: Sie überfallen die Familie Boatwright und nehmen sie als Geisel. Beim ersten Anzeichen von Widerstand sind sie bereit zu töten und zunächst verhalten sich die Boatwrights still. Doch dann wird die Situation unerträglich. An incredible, world-class thriller by a master of the genre - this is George Dawes Green's first novel in thirteen years and it is an instant classic. | When grifters Shaw and Romeo pull up at a convenience store in Georgia, their only thought is to fix a faulty tyre and be on their way to Florida. But this happens to be the store from which a $318 million Jackpot ticket has just been sold - and when the pretty clerk accidentally reveals to Shaw the identity of the winning family, he hatches a terrifyingly audacious plan. That night, he visits the Boatwright family's home and takes them hostage, while the sinister Romeo patrols the streets nearby, prepared to murder the Boatwrights' loved ones at the first sign of resistance. At first, the family offers none. But Shaw's plan depends on maintaining constant fear - merciless, unfaltering terror - and soon, under the pressure, everyone's sanity begins to unravel. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 360 gr | 199x126x37 mm | 448 pp.
