Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 163 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After receiving material from a former adversary alleging that the next President of the United States is a Russian mole and co-conspirator in a plot to overthrow the government, John Darque, known as Chadeaux (Shadow), and the covert organization he heads must act quickly to determine the facts. Surveillance of a KGB operative in a seemingly unrelated situation develops a lead, Albert Michaels, which may only be coincidental, but this is a concept that doesn't exist in Darque's view of reality. In order to advance the investigation, a female asset is used to make contact with Michaels and determine his relationship with the KGB, but an inadvertent mistake made by a member of the surveillance team observing the meeting exposes the asset as a threat to the conspirators. The asset and her control agent, Penny Miller, a team leader in Darque's organization, as well as being his confidant and lover, are targeted for death by the KGB, but only the asset is killed while Miller is seriously injured in a staged vehicle accident. At this point, Darque's passive approach to the situation changes to active . in a big way. As more and more information is developed confirming the conspiracy, a person from the Middle East, whose picture had been found on several passports, appears in Berlin, and then disappears. Michaels eventually fulfills his role in the cabal by flying to Germany and delivering a car to a location where it is retrieved by Auric, the only name found for the man who seemed to vanish in Berlin. Before Auric could retrieve the car, it was inspected by Darque's team and found...
