Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Late one evening while sitting in his favorite cafe, The Argonaut, Noadiah is surprised to see his friend Joshua. He s with friends. They invited him to join in the festivities. Although, after hearing of their travels to a place of space and time, Noadiah is bewildered. In an effort to help him understand as to why they went and what they discovered about themselves they take him to the Viewing Pool. He unexpectedly meets a young woman and senses something strangely familiar about her. She leaves him in a state of rapture. His hope in finding her rests with Tobias, a man who will become his mentor. He soon learns that for him to be with her, he must experience life in the world of space and time- just as she has. It isn t until his life as Miriam in The Fisherman s Daughter, that he gains perspective as to the meaning of Journeys. Miriam, may have her doubts as to her origin, but her father, Malachi (the spirit of the young woman...
