This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Thomas Lange's novel The Land of Fairy Tale is as fascinating today as it was when he first wrote it in 1865. Many of these features have changed remarkably little. From time to time storm floods still occur, and dramatic sunsets, one of which so frightened Marie the first time she came to the Rectory because she thought it came from a terrible, threatening fire, are common. On the back of the stone is the following verse composed by the Pastor. In Nature you sensed the quiet sounds of the divine voice. Heard the soul's strings plucked in a mournful song. Skallingen and the western strand, heather, marsh and dunes Became your 'Land of Fairy Tale'. In 1979, on the completion of the renovation of the Rectory, half of the garden was dedicated as...
